Snail Male

Who lives in a pineapple under the sea? Gary!

BY DEBORAH WAY

➔ In "Where's Gary?" a new half-hour SpongeBob SquarePants special, SpongeBob forgets to feed his pet snail, Gary, who then runs away from home. We gathered 5 fun facts about our favorite sea snail to prove how unforgettable he is.

HAVE YOU SEEN GARY?

HE SO,
HIM
I HIM!
-SPONGEBOB

1 Like most cats — er, sea snails — Gary hates baths and likes to take lots of naps.

2 SpongeBob almost lost his pet once before, when Gary started ignoring him in favor of Patrick — but it turned out that Gary just wanted the cookie in Pat's pocket.

3 Patrick's pet rock once beat Gary in a race.

4 Tom Kenny, the voice of SpongeBob, also does the voice of Gary. He records new "meows" for every episode.

5 On "Opposite Day," Gary barks.

"Where's Gary?" premieres November 11 on Nickelodeon.

Beetle Bites

Take a wild ride with some souped-up trivia from Herbie: Fully Loaded. BY RACHEL ROBERTS

➔ You already know the movie Herbie: Fully Loaded stars Lindsay Lohan as Maggie, a teenager who restores a magical Volkswagen Beetle. And, you probably also know that Maggie enters Herbie into a big NASCAR race. But, we bet you don't know these secrets from the set — just in time for the movie's DVD, zooming out on Oct. 25.

1

Both Herbie and Lindsay Lohan have been in 5 movies.

2

Matt Dillon's character, Trip, was a rapper, not a racer, in the original script — he must have had a real motor mouth.

3

Justin Long, who plays Kevin, was the practical joker on set. He even got Lindsay, putting a rubber rat in her popcorn!

4

Maggie pays $75 for Herbie, which is the exact amount the character Jim paid in the 1968 movie The Love Bug — Herbie's first role.

STAR QUOTE

"I was 5 or 6 the first time I saw the castle. It seemed a lot bigger then. I look at it now, and I'm, like, 'I could jump over that.'"

Amazing Racer

We saddle up for an interview with Dreamer star Dakota Fanning. BY ALLISON CLANCY

She's been sassed by a cat and chased by aliens, but in Dreamer, Dakota Fanning takes to the track as Cale Crane, a young girl with the big dream of saving an injured racehorse. We chewed the hay with the pint-sized star to find out how she made the transformation from regular kid into horse-racing heroine.

Have you always liked horses, or did you have to learn to like them for the film?

I had never done anything with horses, but I loved them right away. I couldn't wait to do the movie! I took care of a lot of the horses on the set by brushing them and giving them baths. I got to know all of their personalities.

Was learning to ride tricky?

I was kind of learning from the ground up. I learned about the equipment, the saddles and the different brushes. The second week [of training], I started cantering. It was so much fun! It felt like my horse and I were the only things in the world.

What's the most fun thing about being an actress?

For every movie that I've done, I've learned a new skill. Getting to learn things on movies is really neat because it's double the fun!

Any words of advice for aspiring actors?

Just follow your dreams. It's all about having a bunch of fun!

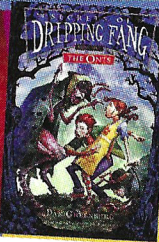

Dreamer is out in theaters now.

BIG ADVENTURE, LITTLE HERO

In the new movie Chicken Little, all that stands between Earth and alien destruction is one pint-sized poultry.

BY DEBORAH BARNES

He's tiny and tufted, an odd bird. Chicken Little is nobody's idea of a hero — in fact, he's a bit of an outcast. (That's what happens when you alert the whole town that a chunk of the sky has fallen on your head.) So when Chicken Little discovers what he thinks is a plan for alien invasion, no one — including his dad, Buck — believes him. Chicken Little and his band of misfit friends must find a way to save the world on their own.

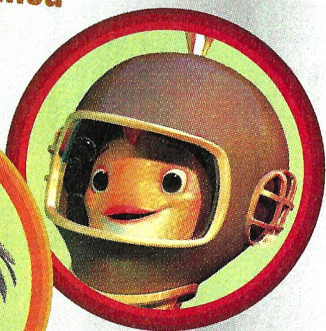

CLASS ACT

feathered and finned classmates.

Chicken Little

Activities: Baseball Team
(fourth-string alternate),
Inventors Club

Most Likely to Fowl Up:

America

Most Dependable:

Abby "Ugly Duckling" Mallard believes in her best friend, Chicken Little, even when the whole town turns against him.

Fish Out of Water

Activities: Dance Team, Swim Team, Betta Club, Coral Society

Best-Dressed: Fish, a creature of few words, hangs with Chicken Little, Abby and Runt — a group that doesn't quite fit in with the popular crowd.

A large, round, pig-like character with a blue jacket and a white shirt, standing behind a large brown object.

Runt of the Litter

Most Excitable: He may not have feathers, but Runt is the biggest “chicken” in town, with the perfect song for every scary occasion — like his frantic rendition of “I Will Survive” as he recklessly pilots a rescue fire truck!

A tall, white, duck-like character with a red bow tie and a red skirt, standing with its arms crossed.

Goosey Loosey

Activities: Weightlifting, Wrestling Team, Dodgeball Champion

Most Popular, Most Athletic:

Sly Foxy has a sharp wit — especially when she's picking on other students — and she pretty much runs the school.

BEHIND-THE-SCENES

PSST ... WE KNOW SECRETS ABOUT CHICKEN LITTLE THAT NEVER REACHED THE BIG SCREEN!

To come up with names and looks for Chicken Little's classmates, animators were told to think of old phrases like "bull in a china shop" and "fly in the ointment" and to imagine what those would look like. That's how they came up with Chicken Little's friends Runt of the Litter and Fish Out of Water.

He may be tiny, but he's no baby.

Chicken Little goes to middle school, and although they never say so in the movie, he's around 13 years old.

It took producer Randy Fullmer and director Mark Dindal 5 years to make Chicken Little. Before that, it took them 5 years to make The Emperor's New Groove. Like what kind of perfectionists are they, anyway?

Runt has a thing for old '70s songs — he often sings them to calm his nerves. "Runt is a nerdy character," says producer Randy Fullmer. "He weighs 900 pounds, but he was the smallest in his litter, so he has insecurity issues. When he's under stress, he sings to make himself feel better. We picked classic '70s songs for him to sing because people have an emotional connection to those songs, even if they weren't around when they were first written."

BNL wrote a new song for the Chicken Little soundtrack called "One Little Slip." Listen for it during the scene in which Chicken Little sets out for school, then stumbles into a series of disasters, ending up without his pants in front of a bunch of cheerleaders (don't ask!).

HOGWARTS REPORT!

We're fired up for
Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire,
and have the interviews to prove it!

BY STEPHEN TIMBLIN

No doubt about it, the fourth flick in the Harry Potter series is the most jam-packed yet. There's the Quidditch World Cup and the Triwizard Tournament. Cho Chang tongue-ties Harry, and Viktor Krum chases Hermione. Voldemort returns to the land of the living, and Cedric Diggory . . . well, you know what happens to poor Cedric.

To get you the scoop, we tracked down five of Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire's brightest stars. First up, best buds Harry (Daniel Radcliffe) and Ron (Rupert Grint). Then, check out our chat with three fresh faces making quite a splash in this epic adventure.

come up, it's really nice. It's not like they're coming up and saying, "I hate you and your films." They're being really complimentary.

Seeing as you're a huge music fan, you must have loved filming scenes with the Weird Sisters?

No, not at all — because I wasn't in the scene! I didn't get to see them perform, because at the party Harry is supposed to be a wallflower. So they shot all my scenes separately, which is why

I'm this bitter!

Daniel Radcliffe
(Harry Potter)

How has being Harry Potter changed your life?

Well, I'm here [on the set], instead of in school, and that's not a bad thing! And I do get recognized on the street. Recently, I was walking near where I live, and this kid looked at me, and I could see he recognized me. It would have been fine if he hadn't yelled out, "Hey everyone, come look," and then, like, 30 people came over, which was a little overwhelming. But when you have 2 or 3 people

You had to film in a giant underwater tank for the Triwizard Tournament lake task. What was that like?

It wasn't my favorite scene at all, but it was the most interesting and most fun in a way, because I did learn so much. By the end of the 3 weeks, I had 2 ear infections, and my eyes were really stinging. But at the same time, it's going to look amazing.

What are your tips for underwater acting?

Don't try to speak! Don't try in any way to actually mouth your lines. I tried that, unintelligently.

Rupert Grint (Ron Weasley)

How has Ron changed in this movie?

Obviously he's grown up a lot, and he's a real teenager now. He has a few arguments with his best mate, Harry, which is something he hadn't done before. And he has a real hard time getting a date for the Yule Ball.

Have the movies started to blend into one giant movie at this point?

Yeah, they have. I can hardly remember anything on this last movie, and I just finished it! I'm always confusing moments from this movie with the third and second films.

Is there a scene you enjoyed filming the most?

Yeah, we got to do a lot of underwater sequences. I found that really cool. I'm not that strong a swimmer, so it was quite hard as well. We even had to take a few days of diving and scuba training before filming.

Tell us about Ron's outfit for the ball...

Oh, that was really nasty. It's all frilly and pink, with a green bowtie. It's one of the reasons why Ron is miserable at the ball. Of course, he doesn't dance, which was quite good for me as well. Some of the other actors had to work on these choreographed dances, which I happily got to skip!

Robert Pattinson
(Cedric Diggory)

Were you happy with the ending of Goblet of Fire when you read it?

Yeah. [The cemetery scene] was the bit I was most looking forward to doing. You don't really get to die that often, you know?

What scene have you enjoyed filming the most?

The maze scene. There were these massive hedges, which were all hydraulically operated. You could actually get squeezed in by them!

Any embarrassing moments on the set?

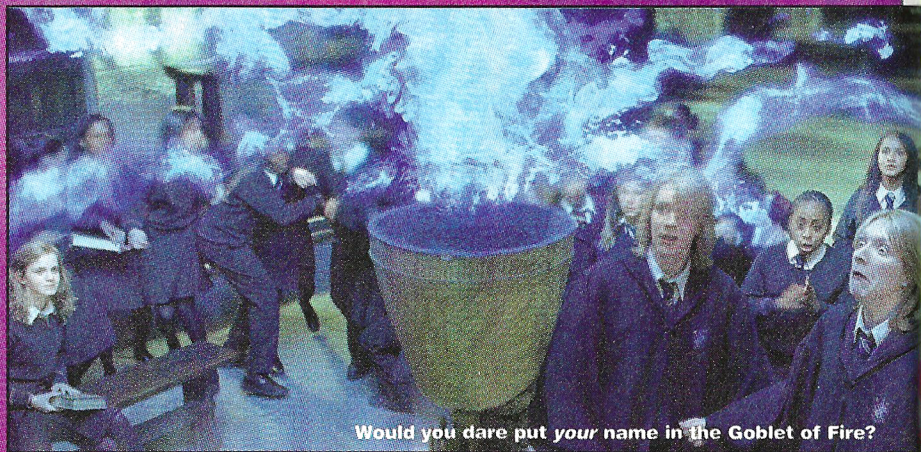

We had to do this scene looking like heroes diving into the lake. They had a stand-in doing perfect dives on the first take. Then Stan (Stanislav Ianevski), Clémence (Poesy, who plays Fleur Delacour) and I tried, but none of us could dive in right, and we all looked really stupid.

What do you think Cedric might have done after Hogwarts?

Good question ... I could imagine him being a Quidditch commentator.

Would you dare put your name in the Goblet of Fire?

Katie Leung
(Cho Chang)

How did you get to be Cho?

My dad saw an advertisement for a casting call and suggested I try out. But when we got there and saw the length of the [line], I said, "No way, I'd rather go shopping." My dad insisted, and I ended up waiting about 4 hours. When I finally got in, the tryout was only 5 minutes long. I got called 2 weeks later to come in for a workshop, and from there I got the part.

What was your favorite scene?

Probably the Yule Ball, because we got to dress up.

Were you happy with the clothes you wore as Cho?

I was pretty happy. It's different from my style. Cho is more of a girly girl, and I'm more of a tomboy. Cho Chang, though, is pretty athletic. That's definitely not me — I like to sleep!

Stanislav Ianevski (Viktor Krum)

How did you get the part?

I was late for school, and [Goblet of Fire's] casting director was at my school. She said she wanted me to audition. Then the head of drama at my school asked for my name. I thought I was in trouble!

How did your friends react to the news?

Many of them, including my mom, didn't believe me [at first].

Are you athletic like Viktor?

I was trained for football [soccer] from when I was 8. Then I trained in tennis [and] was on the A team for rugby. In my free time, I run.

Katie told us you're the set's table tennis champ.

Yeah, I even have to let people win once in a while!

Sly 3: Honor Among Thieves

(PS2)

The rascally raccoon Sly Cooper faces his trickiest test yet: stopping a gang of thugs from stealing the Cooper family fortune. With Bentley and Murray by his side, Sly must recruit a crew of crooks to help him out. But don't take our word for it — take Sly's!

1. On his favorite new disguise...

"I've got a Pirate getup, which for some reason, whenever I put it on, I can't help but say 'Aaarrgh.' Weird, I know."

2. On his new moves...

"I've picked up some charged cane attacks. They're great for smacking a bunch of guards at once or for slamming a guy into next week."

3. On his dream heist...

"I'd like to swipe the Mona Lisa. That woman's smile drives me crazy. I wouldn't mind looking at that lovely face hanging above my mantel."

4. On retirement...

"You know what they say, 'Once a thief ... always a thief.' My idea of retirement is jail time."

TIP: When brawling with Murray, put him at the edge of a cliff and point the camera towards the cliff. Enemies will then come into view near the cliff-side, making it easier to dispatch them by giving them a little push.

Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire

(GC, PS2, XBOX)

Hogwarts Harry leaps in at No. 2 on our countdown with his latest magical adventure packed with fire-breathing dragons, mysterious mazes and a heart-stopping duel with Lord Voldemort. Plus, this playable Potter is packed with plenty of firsts for the series. Check out our 3 favorites!

1. Bringing the movies to life, this is the first time Harry, Hermione and Ron look like their real-life big-screen counterparts. The other Triwizard Tournament students — Viktor, Fleur and Cedric — also look just like the actors who play them in the film!

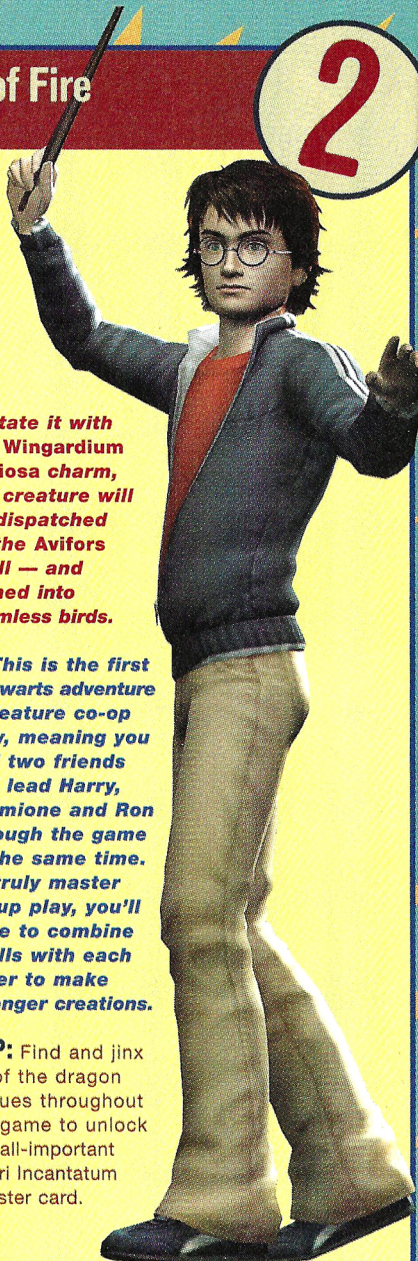

2. In another cool first, Goblet of Fire lets you combine magic to produce new, more powerful spells. For example, if you jinx the dugbog and then levitate it with the Wingardium Leviosa charm, the creature will be dispatched by the Avifors spell — and turned into harmless birds.

3. This is the first Hogwarts adventure to feature co-op play, meaning you and two friends can lead Harry, Hermione and Ron through the game at the same time. To truly master group play, you'll have to combine spells with each other to make stronger creations.

TIP: Find and jinx all of the dragon statues throughout the game to unlock the all-important Priori Incantatum booster card.

Kingdom Hearts II

(PS2)

Only one year has passed since the events in Kingdom Hearts, but Sora and sidekicks Goofy and Donald must again team up for an epic adventure. The dreaded Heartless have returned, and they're as heartless as ever. To beat them, Sora and crew must learn to master wild new moves and hook up with some familiar faces. Here's why Sora's sequel is our No. 1 game!

1. Sora explores more of Disney's most magic kingdoms, including the Land of Dragons — filled with characters from Mulan — and a water world based on Pirates of the Caribbean. The classic Mickey Mouse cartoon Steamboat Willie also inspires a new level, as does Beauty and the Beast!

2. Sora relies on a new "Drive" command to get out of tough spots. Using the "Drive," Sora fuses with a fellow character for extra-powerful attacks, meaning that he combines with Goofy, Donald, Auron and others for new attacks and keyblades!

3. Final Fantasy fanatics won't be let down by this sequel. Cloud makes another appearance, and in one scene he's seen hanging with Squall. Seifer, Fujin, Raijin, and others pop into the game as well.

4. In our September issue, we revealed that King Mickey plays a huge role. Now we can let you know that Minnie Mouse also stars! During one mission, Sora arrives at Disney Castle, where he must lead Queen Minnie safely to the throne room while fighting off a horde of Heartless.

Want to be an All-Star? SWEET!

Volunteering to help others makes you feel like a hero. Just ask the four stars of The Suite Life of Zack & Cody — Dylan (who plays Zack), Brenda (London), Cole (Cody) and Ashley (Maddie) — who recently spent a day cleaning up a local park. Read on to hear about their volunteering adventures, then turn the page to find out how you can help, too!

You did some volunteering recently, right?

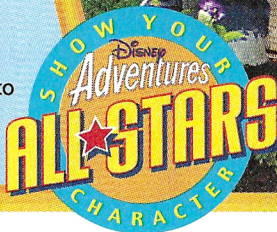

Brenda: Yeah, we all went out to Elysian Park [in Los Angeles]. We were painting a fence, raking leaves, planting flowers; things that anybody can do.

Dylan: We also cleaned up litter, and we had a giant water fight.

Ashley: It was all of us together, so it was really fun.

Did everything go smoothly?

Brenda: We were painting a picket fence yellow, and they said, "Try not to get any on you!" And we got back and we have paint in our hair, all Volunteer and become a Disney Adventures All-Star — and you could meet the Suite Life stars!

BY DEBORAH WAY

over our face, and we couldn't get it off because it was oil-based! We used eye-makeup remover — that did the trick.

Have you volunteered before?

Brenda: Yes, actually, the whole cast of The Suite Life and a bunch of Disney Channel stars went to Children's Hospital Los Angeles last Christmas to see the kids.

Dylan: We went around and we signed autographs, and we saw people and we cheered them on.

Cole: It was kind of sad, because some of the kids were really ill. But it was nice to feel that you brightened up their day.

What's the best part of volunteering?

Ashley: It feels good that you did something to help your community.

Brenda: All it takes is 10 minutes, plant some flowers — it makes a big difference, and people see that.

Any project ideas for other kids?

Dylan: You can save the manatees, which would be awesome, because manatees are cute! Or you could clean up litter.

Ashley: Help out around your neighborhood; help out at hospitals, get to meet other kids and spend some time with them.

Brenda: It doesn't matter if it's the biggest thing or the smallest thing, but if it comes from the heart, you can make a difference.

Series Spectacular!

Got World Series fever? Then, feast your eyes on these true, tricky or just flat-out false facts to get you ready for baseball's big show.

BY JOSEPH BARRACATO AND ERIKA WARCHOLAK

The Boston Red Sox and the Pittsburgh Pirates played in the first official World Series in 1903.

Tricky. They were the Boston Americans back then, silly! (Boston won 5 games to 3. Yup, it was a 9-game Series then!)

Nothing stops the Series: It's been played every year since 1903.

False. In 1904, a disagreement involving the American League president cancelled the Series. And in 1994 there was no Series due to a players' strike.

In 100 years of World Series championships, American League teams have won 59 titles and National League teams have won 41.

True. New York Yankees (AL) have won the most (26), followed by the Philadelphia/Oakland A's (AL) and the St. Louis Cardinals (NL) (9 wins each).

The Series was postponed in 1989 because of power outages.

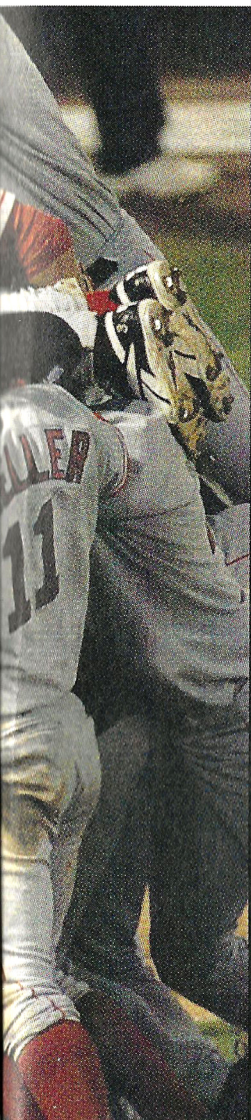

False. A huge earthquake shook San Francisco's Candlestick Park so violently during Game 3 between the Giants and the Oakland A's that the game was suspended. The Series was postponed for 10 days.

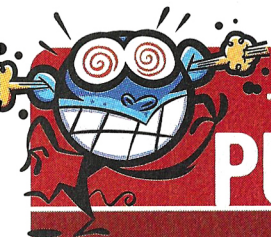

On October 21, 2000, the New York Yankees and the New York Mets played the longest World Series game ever — 12 hours!

Tricky. C'mon, now. The Yankees and Mets did play the longest World Series game in history, but the 12 innings lasted only 4 hours, 51 minutes.

The 1927 Yankees were known as "Murderers' Row."

True. The nickname referred to their "killer" roster — possibly the greatest offensive lineup in Baseball. Legends including Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Earle Combs and Bob Meusel led the Yankees to a 110-44 regular season record and a World Series title.

1. SPONSOR: Buena Vista Magazines, Inc., dba Disney Adventures Magazine, 114 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10011.

2. ELIGIBILITY: The qualifications to participate in this Contest require the Contestant to be of an age of not less than six (6), nor older than fourteen (14), upon entry ("Age"). A Contestant may enter in one of three (3) categories: [1] Kid, composed of each Entry for one child of Age; [2] Team, composed of each Entry for a group of six or fewer persons each of Age ("Group") or for a family ("Family") of one Child or more of Age; [3] School, composed of Entries by students of Age ("Student"). The term, "Contestant" as used herein means each participating Kid, member of a Team or Student.

3. CONTEST: The subject of this Contest is any volunteer community work project ("Project"). After you have selected and completed your Project, prepare your story, consisting of your answers to the following questions, but not exceeding 300 words: (1) Why did you decide to volunteer? (2) What did you do to help others? (3) Was this your first time volunteering? (4) How would you describe your volunteer experience? (5) Would you volunteer again? ("Story").

4. ENTRY: The Contest may be entered only during the period commencing at 12:01:00 A.M., October 18, 2005 and ending at 11:59:59 P.M., April 1, 2006 ("Term"), in one of the two following ways. For purposes of these Official Rules ("Rules"), all times and dates are Pacific Time.

(a) INTERNET ENTRY: This Contest may be entered online by a registered Disney.com guest ("Member") by going directly to <http://disneygo.com/allstars/> ("Website") and following the instructions for a conditional entry. If you are not already a Member, you may easily register to become a Member for free through the link on the site: "Not Registered?" by filling out the simple Registration Form. Your parent/legal guardian ("Parent") will be sent an e-mail advising the Parent that his/her child ("Child") has submitted a conditional entry for the Contest, asking the Parent to verify this conditional entry by clicking on a link in the e-mail, validating Child's Internet Entry as described in the e-mail and providing the phone number where the Parent can be reached if his/her Child is chosen as a potential winner. Once the Child's entry has been validated, the Child must return to the Website to complete his/her entry form by logging in and following the further instructions. If the Parent doesn't validate the Child's Internet Entry, the Internet Entry will be denied. Each submission will result in one Internet Entry. Normal Internet access and usage charges imposed by your online service will apply. It is your sole responsibility to notify Sponsor if you or your Parent change e-mail address ("Address"). To do so, go to <http://register.go.com/disney/GuestServices/YourAccount/login>, log into your Membership Account, click on the "Modify" icon and follow the instructions on how to change the Address.

(b) MAIL ENTRY: Complete an Official Entry Form on page 65, and mail it together with your Story inside a postage prepaid business size (#10) envelope to: Disney Adventures All-Stars Team Contest, P.O. Box 717, Northampton, MA 01061-0717.

Neither the Entities, nor any of their officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents or representatives (individually and collectively, "Releasees") are responsible for Entries from persons residing, or located, outside the Territory; printing errors; or Entries that are altered, defective, delayed, destroyed, fraudulent, illegible, inaccurate, incomplete, late, lost, multiple, mutilated, postage-due, stolen, tampered with, unauthorized, unintelligible or unvalued; or any printing, production, technical, electronic or other errors; or for lost, interrupted or unavailable network, server or other connections; miscommunications; failed phone, computer hardware or software or telephone transmissions; technical failures; unauthorized human intervention; traffic congestion; garbled or jumbled transmissions; undeliverable e-mails resulting from any form of active or passive e-mail filtering;
